

Financial Agreement for Teletherapy

Fees will be the same for teletherapy as for in-person services. It is your responsibility to check with your insurance company to see if teletherapy is covered. If insurance doesn't cover, you will be responsible for the full cost of the session(s).

Just as with in office counseling, 24 business hours notice is required to cancel an appointment. A fee of $25 will be charged if less than 24 hours notice is given. If there is a No Show Contract in place, the full appointment fee will be charged.

We require a credit card to be placed on file for teletherapy sessions. The client's portion of the fees will be charged on the day of the appointment (or as close to that day as possible). Please complete the information below.

Credit Card Authorization

I authorize Creekside Counseling to charge the credit card listed below for telehealth services.
